Product Description

Husqvarna 125BVX Handheld Leaf Blower

Comfort meets performance with the Husqvarna 125BVx. With best-in-class CFM* for maximum blowing performance, this gas blower also features a state-of-the-art ergonomic design to minimize strain on your arms and wrists. You'll enjoy easier starting with the auto return stop switch and air purge. And, using the included vacuum kit, you can easily turn the blower into a mulching lawn vacuum to quickly break down and collect debris, leaves, and more.
